

Agenda

Public Law 280 and Re-Assumption of Federal Jurisdiction under the Tribal Law and Order Act: The White Earth Experience

January 31, 2014

Catamaran, San Diego, CA

- | | |
|-------------------|--|
| 8:30AM – 9:15AM | Welcome and Introductions
Heather Valdez Singleton, Prog. Director, Tribal Law & Policy Institute
Dorothy Alther, Executive Director, California Indian Legal Services
Randy Goodwin, Chief of Police, White Earth Nation
Jim Hamilton, Attorney, White Earth Nation
Participants |
| 9:15AM - 10:15AM | Overview of Tribal Law and Order Act (TLOA) and Public Law 280 (PL 280)
Dorothy Alther, Executive Director, California Indian Legal Services |
| 10:15AM - 10:30AM | Break |
| 10:30AM – 11:30AM | Overview of White Earth’s Experience with Section 221
Randy Goodwin, Chief of Police, White Earth Nation
Jim Hamilton, Attorney, White Earth Nation |
| 11:30AM – 12:00PM | Questions/Discussion |
| 12:00PM – 1:15PM | Lunch on your own |
| 1:15PM – 2:15PM | White Earth Context before Section 221 and the Request Process
Jim Hamilton, Attorney, White Earth Nation |
| 2:15PM – 2:45PM | Questions/Discussion |
| 2:45PM – 3:00PM | Break |
| 3:00PM – 3:45PM | Current Jurisdiction at White Earth: Successes and Challenges
Randy Goodwin, Chief of Police, White Earth Nation |
| 3:45PM – 4:00PM | Questions/Discussion |
| 4:00PM | Closing |